

Summer Reading Program 2010/11

Incline High School

All IHS students will read two books over the summer break. On Thursday/Friday, September 9th or 10th, 2010, teachers will design a form of accountability for each English class. Anticipate that your teacher will ask you to write something about the two books you have read this summer (a characterization, reading log, a dialectical journal, or an essay on themes). Take notes as you read.

Required Advanced Placement reading assignments are also included in this notice.

12th Grade—Advanced Placement Literature and Composition (required reading).

*The Importance of Being Earnest	Oscar Wilde
*1984	George Orwell
*Things Fall Apart	Chinua Achebe
*Invisible Man	Ralph Ellison

11th Grade—Advanced Placement Language and Composition (required reading)

*The Grapes of Wrath	John Steinbeck
The Road	Cormac McCarthy
*One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest	Ken Kesey

9th, 10th, 11th and 12th Grade English Students

You may select two from the following possibilities, but these are only suggestions. We want you to enjoy your summer reading, so please choose two books that you want to read. Read some reviews on Amazon.com before making your final reading selections. Enjoy!
